

30 Muslims Saved in a 10-Minute Phone Call

Dear xxxxx,

Do you want to know how to make the biggest impact for Christ in the Muslim world?

Evangelizing Muslims is hard everywhere in the world—except Iran. Many missionaries around the world spend years loving Muslims and sharing the Gospel with them to then see only a handful make a decision to follow Christ. A precious American missionary has written a book about spending 40 years in Iran before the Islamic revolution in 1979 and seeing only 10 Muslims come to Christ. But Iran has changed since then. More than 38 years of Islamic rule has caused Iranians by the millions to reject Islam and become open to the message of the Gospel.

Our broadcast goes over the heads of the mullahs and simultaneously reaches millions of Iranian Muslims in the privacy of their homes. We have seen tens of thousands come to Christ. Below is a story of how 30 Muslims came to Christ in 10 minutes through a phone call.

A while back one of our phone counselors received a call from an Iranian man:

I am calling to ask you how we can become Christians. You see, my extended family and I have been watching your satellite TV programs for a while. As a family custom, we all gather weekly for a meal. We have been doing this for years. A few months ago, I told them how I had come across your TV channel and how your programs tell us about a God who loves us and wants a relationship with us. So the rest of the family started watching your programs as well.

Recently, we have been discussing what we have heard on your channel and how it compares to Islam. After several months of watching your programs and after much discussion and deliberation, we have all decided to follow Christ.

So now, we are all here in my large family room. There are six families and about 30 people here. I bought a speaker phone just for this purpose. They are all listening to our conversation at this moment, and we all want to know what we need to do to become Christians. Would you tell us how?

Our phone counselor was filled with excitement and joy. He shared a simple message of the Gospel and told them that according to Romans 10:9–10 all they need to do is to believe in their hearts and confess with their mouths that Jesus is their Savior and Lord.

(over, please)

He then led them in a prayer of salvation, and all 30 members of the family repeated after him, phrase by phrase.

My friends, there are still many places in the world where missionaries have to labor for years to see a handful of Muslims come to Christ, but it is a different story in Iran. The evil Prince of Persia mentioned in Daniel 10:13 is undeniably losing its grip on the souls of millions of Iranians.

Therefore, bringing Iranians to Christ is not hard, though we must warfare in prayer and also deliver the message of the Gospel to the privacy of their homes via satellite TV. Indeed, it is because of your prayers and financial support that we are able to take the Gospel to every home in Iran and see thousands saved every month. Yet...

We Want Disciples Not Converts

We do not see salvation as an end but a beginning. We are not satisfied merely with converts because according to Jesus's mandate (Matt 28:19), we are called to make disciples and not just converts. We need your support to make disciples of these large number of new believers. We urgently need to expand our discipleship and leadership training efforts. We can't leave these converts to stay as spiritual babies. We need to produce more in-depth Bible teaching TV programs and more online discipleship classes. Would you help us disciple Iran for Christ? As donations usually drop during the summer months, would you prayerfully consider giving a special gift this month?

Iranians are ready not just to convert but to become disciples and ambassadors of Christ. As God has put a supernatural hunger for Christ in their hearts, He has also implanted a desire to become true disciples and to serve Him. Many are asking us to teach them the biblical truths and train them to be productive for Christ. The hunger is there. We just need to feed that hunger with the word of God.

Partnering together we will soon see the walls of Islam come down and millions of Muslim captives set free. There are already big cracks in that wall in Iran. So let us join together and knock those walls down.
